ABOUT PRESENT NOW

PRESENT NOW was founded by social entrepreneurs and philanthropists Melanie Neumann and Erica Fisher in 2012. From storing gifts in their garages and having their own children volunteer, Melanie and Erica grew the organization into what it is today. In its first year, PRESENT NOW delivered 118 presents to two shelters.

To date, PRESENT NOW has delivered 16,669 presents to children and young adults in 144 shelter locations across the country.

More than presents, we deliver moments of joy.

OUR WHY

When families experiencing domestic violence flee their homes, they often leave all of their possessions behind. More importantly, children who witness domestic violence need to be grounded in nurturing, positive relationships with the non-violent parent or caregiver. This is the driving force behind PRESENT NOW's Presents Program.

In partnership with our network of Shelter Partners, PRESENT NOW delivers three presents per year – one on Valentine's Day, one for Back to School, and one on their Birthday – to the safe parent, helping them rekindle a healthy, loving relationship with their children during their recovery.

The Presents Program is designed to both enhance the services already provided by our Shelter Partners to help children heal during a time of crisis.

The program is volunteer-run, with over 200 volunteers preparing and customizing presents that are shipped throughout the year.

"We didn't have anything when we came to the shelter. Someone I'd never met made not only me but my whole family feel special." - P., age 17

"It is extremely rewarding to see the children's faces when they receive a beautifully wrapped present. Many parents in our shelter cannot afford to purchase their child a gift. We are grateful to be connected to a great organization. Thank you for caring about our families!!"

OPPORTUNITIES

Corporate partners help us fulfill our mission through financial support and in-kind contributions, as well as volunteering, allowing us to continue to expand our reach.

PRESENT NOW offers a multitude of ways to get involved. By becoming a program partner, sponsoring an event, or enjoying team building volunteering events with your colleagues through present packing events, your organization can help bring joy to children living in domestic violence shelters.

"I was worried my son would be sad for his birthday because I wasn't going to be able to afford anything. When we saw the present we were both so happy and I thanked God my son was so happy. It was amazing! God bless you!"
